

IYCN MENTORING PROGRAM

Mentor Application Form

The International Younger Chemists Network (IYCN) is setting up a mentoring program that is intended to support PhD students in their career development. For this, we are looking for mentors from all areas and countries that would be interested in assisting young chemists to pursue their careers. At the same time, we are looking for mentees who are currently doing a PhD in chemistry and expecting to earn their degree no earlier than October 2022.

The goal of the mentoring program is to:

1. Connect chemists from around the world
2. Provide younger chemists with support
  - a. Career advice
  - b. School advice (postdoctoral)
  - c. Navigating opportunities, issues/problems, etc...

For more information about the mentoring program please find the full program outline and contact persons on our homepage <https://www.iycnglobal.com> (Outreach/Mentoring Program).

Kindly note that your application will not be complete unless you send us your CV and biography via e-mail to finalize your application. Please send your CV and biography to publicoutreach.iycn@gmail.com

Important note: This is the mentor form. If you would like to apply for the mentorship program as a mentee, please use our mentor form available on the IYCN homepage.
